HAVING enlarged their former premises, by the addition of the spacious store, formerly occupied by Cowles & Ross, would call the attention of their customers and the public in city and country, to their extensive assortment of
READY MADE CLOTHING,
Cloths, Cassimeres, Vestings, Satinets, Tweeds, Flannels, &c., &c.
And a general assortment of Dry Goods and Gentlemen's Furnishing Goods.
They are confident in view of their very superior and unsurpassed facilities for the purchase of goods in the Eastern markets from cash auctions, importers and manufacturers, in all cases from first hands, one of the firm residing and superintending the business of their concern in Philadelphia, that they are not only able, and do buy their goods from 20 to 25 per cent cheaper than most houses in the city who buy on credit, and of jobbers, but they are also determined to sell that much lower. They deem it superfluous to attempt, as it is impossible to enumerate the articles that comprise their stock, which in extent is unrivalled by any similar establishment west of the Atlantic cities.
To their friends and customers, and those who know them, it is needless to say anything, but to strangers who are in want of articles comprising their stock, they will say, call on us, and let us show you the great inducements we are able to offer; we will give you polite and respectful attention, with better bargains than you are able to get elsewhere. The most perfect satisfaction is guaranteed in all cases to those who deal with us.

WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON, NOV. 24.

Thanksgiving Editorial.

PSALM CXLVI.

Praise ye the LORD. Praise the LORD, O my soul.

While I live will I praise the LORD: I will sing praises unto my God while I have any being.

Put not your trust in princes, nor in the son of man, in whom there is no help.

His breath goeth forth, he returneth to his earth; in that very day his thoughts perish.

Happy is he that hath the God of Jacob for his help, whose hope is in the LORD his God:

Which made heaven, and earth, the sea, and all that therein is: which keepeth truth for ever:

Which executeth judgment for the oppressed: which giveth food to the hungry. The LORD looseth the prisoners:

The LORD openeth the eyes of the blind: the LORD raiseth them that are bowed down: the LORD loveth the righteous:

The LORD preserveth the strangers; he relieveth the fatherless and widow: but the way of the wicked he turneth upside down.

The LORD shall reign for ever, even thy God, O Zion, unto all generations. Praise ye the LORD.

PSALM CL.

Praise ye the LORD. Praise God in his sanctuary: praise him in the firmament of his power.

Praise him for his mighty acts: praise him according to his excellent greatness.

Praise him with the sound of the trumpet: praise him with the psaltery and harp.

Praise him with the timbrel and dance: praise him with stringed instruments and organs.

Praise him upon the loud cymbals: praise him upon the high-sounding cymbals.

Let every thing that hath breath praise the LORD. Praise ye the LORD.

Pilgrim's Festival.

To-morrow is the day set apart by recommendation of our Chief Magistrate, in accordance with New England usage, to give thanks for the blessings of the year. There is a wise philosophy in this. The thrifty and time-saving farmer, who after getting in his winter's stock of provisions took his family down cellar and asked a blessing on the potatoes bin, pork barrel, etcetera, to save the time of saying grace at meals, doubtless took a hint from this custom of a general thanksgiving. It is well to have stated seasons of thanksgiving, if men will not be thankful constantly. And it is a great help to thankfulness to have something to be thankful for. For instance, turkies, chickens, pies, and the other etceteras which constitute a well regulated Thanksgiving dinner.

Seriously, what reason for gratitude, have we as a people. Our blessings out-number our transgressions, and that is saying a great deal. Peace and plenty are ours, and want comes not nigh our dwellings. And yet, there are the poor among us who are really in want. Let us remember them, at this festive season, and for one day in the year make their hearts glad.

What a glorious day of rejoicing it would be if every family had a home of their own, and could sit down around their own board, contented with their outward condition, with the consciousness that they were on terms of peace and friendship with all mankind! If we cannot hope to realize such a state of society at once, we can at least do something to hasten it, by promoting within the circle of our own influence, the sentiments of love and good will.

Dear Readers, eat with cheerfulness, give thanks sincerely, and be happy!

N. B.—We have a nice Turkey!!

THE WHIG PARTY NOW.—The Sentinel can't exactly agree with the Seward press that the Whig party is annihilated, though it acknowledges the case is a bad one. It is glad the party has been so thoroughly whipped, and thinks it will do it good. So do we.

It now wants Harbor Vetoes and Free Trade, and is ready for Cuba and War—thinks many will leave the Whig ranks—glad to have them, as it will purify the party—hopes to gain more worthy friends, and get help somewhere, and in the mean time it will rest on its arms—or, elbows—and look round a spell. The party must flourish greatly under such teachings.

The Sentinel rejoices in the election of Wells, and the Hunker ticket generally.

Ohio	169,160	152,526	31,787

☞ In Ohio, Hale has gained 5,615 over the Free Democratic vote of October, and falls but 3,592 behind the vote of Van Buren in '48.

☞ Outagamie county official gives Pierce 499; Scott 148, and Hale 44 votes; Mary 381; Shafter 184; McKee 43.

This makes Hale's total vote 8,743.

What are we Coming to?

The Morning News, of yesterday, copied a long extract from the National Era, on the subject of Slave Emancipation, taking the same ground which Free Soil papers have always taken, that Emancipation in the States must be the work of the Slave States themselves. We are surprised, however, to see the News so soon after election break its own platform. But by way of atonement it, however, utters the following despotic sentiment, which would forbid all opposition to oppression in Austria, Russia or Turkey:—"There is no more sacred duty of the citizen than that of respecting the laws of the Country," (Stamp Act laws not excepted)

We suppose our neighbor don't know any better, and must be excused, on the ground of ignorance, for charging that, by abolitionists, "inflamatory tracts were circulated surreptitiously throughout all the Southern States, in some instances advising the slaves to organize an insurrection and kill their masters."

Now, we challenge the News to produce authentic evidence that a single tract of the description above named was ever circulated through the South, by Abolitionists. It is a gross libel, coined by Slaveites 12 or 15 years ago, and effectually nailed to the wall at the time. But our Rip Van Winkle neighbor, is only just opening his eyes to the fact, that there is a class of people in this country besides Slavocrats and dough-faces, and may be excused therefore, for not being able to discriminate between falsehood and truth.—He will learn by and by. But what in the meantime is to become of the harmony of the party, if the Slave question is to be thus agitated?

CONVENTION DEFERRED.—The Independent Democratic State Convention, called at Whitewater for Tuesday last, has been deferred to some future time, on account of the bad state of the roads. We are glad of this, because it is better. But it would have been better still, had it not been called as it was. There is a seeming fickleness about it that is unfavorable. This same instability has been frequently manifested in the same quarter before. It has done the cause injury.—Oshkosh Democrat.

"This same instability has" never done the cause any injury up North. Of course not. In Milwaukee, men must be perfect, but up North, God and Mammon are twin Deities, who can be served at the same time with perfect consistency. It sounds queer to us—this anxiety about the "cause," and these reproaches from those who have just left the old Hunker party. But the zeal of young converts burns brightly.

☞ The Manitowoc Herald has just completed its 2nd volume.

THE CLOSE.—It looks very like as if navigation had well nigh closed. We have excessively cold days and nights, with a prospect of a few more of the same sort.—Manitowoc Herald.

VOTE OF TRENTON.—The vote of this town in Dodge Co., stood as follows:—Pierce 96, Scott 60, Hale 47.

LIMA.—The vote of Lima, Sheboygan County, was as follows:—Hale 39, Pierce 44, Scott 24.

RESIGNED.—The editor of the Berlin Messenger, Wm. A. Bugh, Esq., says, that having been elected Senator by the newspapers, and not being able to attend to the duties of the office owing to pressing engagements at home, at the suggestion of a friend, we hereby resign in favor of David S. Vittum, Esq., of Sauk Co., who will fill the office in our stead.

☞ The distinguished Baker Family gave a concert in Detroit on Monday evening last.

NO RESPONSIBILITY.—The Janesville Gazette says:

No doubt exists, that the Texas movement is to be repeated on Cuba, with the aid of the experience acquired in that atrocious swindle. Now, as then, all the evils sure to result from its consummation might have been averted by the election of the whig candidate for the Presidency.

Our consciences are clear. We have resisted when and where resistance would be most effectual. Hereafter, if those who deprecate the extension of slavery as the most alarming evil of the day, find themselves engaged in a hopeless struggle, and calling vainly for help, let them remember, they are themselves deeply responsible for the consequences.

Mr. Gazette, read the Whig Baltimore Platform, and then lay your hand on your mouth, and keep it there till you are ready to confess that the defeat of your party was a righteous judgment.

☞ A Janesville correspondent of the Morning News writes that Charles Durkee will remove to that place.

UNION.—There is a rumor of a union proposed or effected between the Milwaukee and Watertown Plank Road and the Milwaukee and Watertown Railroad Companies.—We want to see the Railroad built at once. In our judgment that is the route to Madison.

☞ "Doc" Brown, of the Indiana State Sentinel, it is thought will be made U. S. Senator, vice Whitcomb, deceased.

The New York Tribune, speaking of members of Congress elected from this State, says:—Eastman came out strong against the fugitive slave law on the eve of the election. This is as far from the truth as it can be.—Eastman dared not commit himself on the subject. Several questions touching it were proposed to him by three sellers among the people at this place, but he could not be drawn out, and it was quite apparent that he abandoned a part of his appointments in this county from the very fear of having to meet this question. When he was elected the first time, he played a double game, representing himself as a free soiler in this part of his district, but disclaiming such sentiments in the Eastern part, where they would be unpopular.—Janesville Gaz.

HEAVENLY ANTHEM.—The Philadelphia Sun is entitled to the credit of informing us of a New Hallelujah in Heaven. He there describes Clay and Webster as shouting thanksgivings in the upper world over the defeat of Scott:

Gen. Scott was nominated and that act was an insult to the two great Whig leaders which they never could forget, and which was on Tuesday avenged through the ballot box. Mr. Clay died some months ago, and Mr. Webster a few brief days since. They did not live to see their warning cherished by the American People. But if their departed spirits are permitted to look down on earthly affairs, if the mundane impulses of patriotism outlive the passage through the "valley of the shadow of death," their anthems will ring through the mansions of eternity, and the blessed become more blessed, to know that the dangerous precedent of elevating military chieftains in their dearly loved republic, has received so marked a condemnation by the American people, that party madness will never again attempt to revive it!

Wisconsin Deaf and Dumb Institute.

The undersigned, in behalf of the Deaf and Dumb Institute, located at Delavan, Walworth County, beg to state that a Primary School was commenced in July last, under the care of Mr. Mills, a very worthy and interesting young man, a graduate of the New York Deaf and Dumb Institute.

A portion of the permanent Institute buildings will be completed next season, and in the meantime a pleasant school room has been secured and comfortably fitted up.

Good, convenient board can be obtained at $1,25 to $1,50 per week. Books and tuition free. Board, lodging, washing and fuel, also free to those deaf mutes whose parents or guardians are unable to maintain them at the Institution.

Applications or inquiries should be addressed to J. K. Bradbury, Principal, or H. Hunt, President of the Board,

TYLER COX, F. K. PHŒNIX,
Sec'y of Board Trustees.

☞ Will Newspapers in our State please give the above a few insertions, and also notice editorially.

☞ The Cleveland Herald estimates the number of lives lost on the Lakes, during the late storm, at over 60.

On Lake Erie one vessel is known to have gone down and not one survivor to tell the name or sad tale of shipwreck; and a propeller, full-freighted and carrying twenty-five or thirty persons, has strewn the shore with fragments of her wreck, but not a living soul survives to relate the cause and manner of her going down.

Quite a number of persons residing in Cleveland have perished.

BUCK-EYE BELLE.—The Hon. C. C. Conry, member of the Legislature from Southern Ohio, who had his leg broken and was otherwise injured by the explosion of the Buck-Eye Belle, died on the 17th inst. The Hon. Mr. Bartlett, also a member of the Legislature from Washington co., Ohio, it is feared will die from injuries received by the explosion, and the Hon. Mr. Oakley, member of the House from Monroe co., was likewise dangerously injured.

Twenty-two persons were killed, or have since died, from injuries received from the explosion, and several are known to be missing. The engineer on duty, although dangerously wounded, is not dead as was reported.

☞ A thousand pounds of opium are sold weekly in New York city. That accounts for the stupefaction of its inhabitants.

☞ Portage county gives 200 democratic majority.

Bishop Soule, of the M. E. Church, has postponed his contemplated visit to California until next February.

Gerrit Smith's Majority over the Democratic candidate was more than 1850, and 2500 over the Whig. We hope we outrage no private confidence when we quote the following: "Were you to ask me, who elected me?—I should answer, 'the women.'—The women pleaded and prayed for me, and I am elected." That indicates what Humanity might well hope for, if women were permitted to go directly to the polls, instead of being obliged to work for it only through the coarse medium of creation's worse half.—Cleveland True Dem.

FROZEN IN.—The steamer Badger State went up last week to the Playground, and while up was frozen in so that she could not return. The crew came down on foot, and got here on Tuesday last. The boat is a little below Shyock.

The Montello started up to Mukwa the latter part of last week, and was frozen in, in lake Poygan, while going up.

The Peytona went from here to Fond du Lac, on Sunday last, on her last trip for the season. She is laid up there for the winter.—Oshkosh Democrat, 19th.

WINTER.—Winter, in all might, is upon us. On Friday night last snow fell to the depth of several inches. The weather turned round cold, froze pretty hard, and it has been winter ever since. We have seen several in from the country with sleighs. It is not good sleighing, though the ground is covered with snow, neither is it good wheeling. Lakes Poygan, Butte des Morts, and the rivers are frozen over. Lake Winnebago is frozen out to a good extent.

A few inches more of snow would make capital sleighing.—Oshkosh Dem. 19.

RAILROAD MEETING.—On the evening of the 18th inst., a meeting was held at Watertown for the purpose of adopting measures for the construction of a Railroad from Watertown to Milwaukee.

Our Western Plank Road.—We are informed by the commissioners that the road is completed and will be thrown open to the traveling public to-day or to-morrow. The thoroughfare will be a great accommodation to the country west of us and will add materially to the business of the place.—Watertown Register.

☞ PIERCE and his friends can now afford to laugh at such poetic squibs as the following:

From the New Orleans Campaign Republic.

Incidents in the Life of Pierce.

TUNE—"North Field."

Frank Pierce was born, in early life,
Down in the Granite State;
And growed to be a General,
When he reached man's estate.

Before he rix so very high,
A Congressman he went;
And, many years before, he gave,
An unknown boy a cent.

The facts are these, as Gov. Steele
Related in his speech:—
Two boys were sucking, by the road,
A stick of candy, each.

A third sat blubbering on a stone;
His eyes brim full of water;
Says Pierce, my nasty little friend,
You feel wuss than you ought to.

I want to suck, the boy replied,
And have not got a cent;
Says Pierce, producing that amount,
Now, stranger, "let her went!"

The boy looked up and blowed his nose,
And, with prophetic fire,
Said, you shall be President
For giving me that 'are.

Strange boy, said Pierce, I am surprised,
That you should think a cent
Is cash enough to make a Democratic President.

The boy replied—a cent, I own,
Is not a heavy price,
But Democratic Presidents
Are not upon the rise!

Pierce now resolved to shape his course
Upon the generous plan,
And soon he found another chance
To prove himself a man!

A Sunday School was in distress,
No Library it had;
Said Pierce, this thing must never be,
'Tis too infernal bad!

So seizing a subscription list,
He placed it on his hat,
And, signing 5 and 20 cents,
Said CALL ON ME FOR THAT!

Elated by such deeds as these,
Pierce next to Congress went,
And having spent so much at home,
Thought there he'd save a cent.

A bill was up to grant a boon
To an old soldier's wife;
(The gallant Harrison, who'd served
His country all his life.)

And while the Nation's heart beat quick
To cheer the widow's woe—
And patriot voices answered, YES,
Frank Pierce responded, NO!

His noble deeds were now complete,
But one thing more was wanted;
So down to Mexico he went,
And tried to fight—but fainted!

MOUNT PLEASANT WATER CURE.

We would call the attention of our numerous readers to the advertisement of "Mount Pleasant Water Cure," located at Waukesha.

Dr. Barrett, the proprietor, is a physician of nearly a quarter of a century's experience, and one of the four that twelve years ago, first introduced the Water treatment in America.

The location which Dr. Barrett has chosen as his future home, we deem to be a most happy selection; combining, as it does, the most beautiful scenery with the purest air and water, and walks of a delightful and varied character.

We feel assured that the invalid will find at Mount Pleasant Water Cure, all the comforts of a home, and every thing that he could desire to alleviate his affliction, will be promptly administered. In addition, a gymnasium, embracing every character of calisthenic exercises, will be added; an extensive library of several hundred volumes, embracing the standard works of the day; a melodeon, piano, &c., so that both mind and body may be daily invigorated and refreshed, under the benign and salutary influence of pure water, simple diet, and judicious exercise.

Dr. Barrett is a regularly licensed physician, and a member of the "Hydropathic Association of Physicians and Surgeons of New York," and we are requested to inform the sick and afflicted, or those requiring information, that after Monday, Nov. 22d, he may at all times be found at the "Cure."—Letters addressed to him, post paid, will always meet with prompt attention.

Before closing this notice, we would ask for Mount Pleasant Water Cure a liberal share of patronage.

Dr. Barret, by his extensive improvements, has incurred an expense of several thousand dollars, giving employment to many of our best mechanics; and for the credit of the State, and of this and surrounding counties, we hope Dr. B.'s efforts in behalf of suffering humanity will be duly appreciated.

M. & M. R. ROAD.—The construction cars, laden with ties, rails, &c., now run within a mile of Milton, and will reach Milton the last of the week. The road will be open for business, next Monday.

SPRING STREET BRIDGE.—This classic structure was opened this morning to admit the passage of a vessel and refused to be shut. Cause—breaking of a wheel. Navigation is now open.

MEETING of the Fire Department.—The Fire Department, at its meeting last evening, adopted a series of resolutions, which in substance are as follows:

That in the opinion of the Fire Department the volunteer system, properly encouraged and liberally sustained, is more economical and efficient than the paid system, and that the conduct of the Firemen for years past fully sustains this opinion—that the decrease in the numbers of the Firemen, is mainly attributable to the fact that the Department has not been liberally sustained by the city—that the bills against it for refreshments, &c., have frequently been ignored, or paid grudgingly.

The following suggestions were submitted to the consideration of the Mayor and Aldermen. That the Fire apparatus be put in good repairs at the expense of the City, and that an annual appropriation be made to each of the Fire Companies, sufficient to purchase necessary equipments, &c.

A committee consisting of the Chief Engineer and the Treasurer of each Company, was appointed to inform the Common Council of the action of the Fire Department.

LAKE SHORE R. R.—Attention is directed to the advertisements in another column for proposals to furnish lumber for the Lake Shore R. R. This looks as though the road was to be built some time or other.

GAS-ISH ONLY.—The gas-pipes were lit up last evening, according to promise, and after burning sort o' bluish a short time, the light kinder gin out. It is thought there was too much common air mixed with the gas to make it burn well. To-night there will be a second trial. The public are invited to witness the experiment gratis.

P. S. The gas is now—12 M.—burning finely.

FIRE.—A fire broke out yesterday afternoon about 4 o'clock in the buildings known as the Commercial Hotel, doing about $200 damage. Insured for $600. Two of the fire engines were damaged on the way to the fire, from the wretched state of the streets.

☞ See notice of the Wisconsin Deaf and Dumb Institute in another column. It is the germ of what may become one of the most needful and humane institutions in the State.

☞ Schooner Henry Nelson, Capt. Buckley, cleared for Badonoque, etc., yesterday, with 300 barrels bulk, 120 bbls. flour; 2,700 bush. oats, 300 do rye; 100 bbls. pork, 2 tons coal, 600 lbs. butter.

ACCIDENT.—Henry Hawasen, of the Fourth Ward, had his leg broke on a schooner last evening. He is married.

LICENSE AND LIQUOR.—The Liquor suits are in progress before Justice Walworth, today. They will be decided some way, in the course of time. In the mean time bad liquor will be drank as usual.

☞ Hon. Wm. R. King, Vice-President elect, has almost recovered his health, and is now on a visit to his brother at Tuscaloosa.

nov23 — CALEB WALL.

CITY AUCTION, ROOM.

EVERY night hereafter we will have sales, commencing at 7 o'clock. We commence to night to consume all the Goods we can; and let things be stated as they are and should be. I now give notice to my old friends and new ones and the Public generally, that whenever they purchase any article of me, and it is not as represented, I will take it as a favor to have it returned. It is not my desire to misrepresent any article. My young men who have been with me six years, will not do it. We intend to speak the truth, and represent articles as they are, pluk or swim; and all business entrusted to us will be done upon the same principle and no other.

CITY AUCTION ROOM.

LADIES, I have a variety of Cashmere Scarfs, and Bay State Scarfs, and Bay State Long Shawls, and Figured Flannels, &c., &c. Also, super White Flannel and Hosiery, all of which I will sell at what they originally cost in New York.

CITY AUCTION ROOM.
CITY JOBBING AND CITY AUCTION ROOM.

TWENTY THOUSAND DOLLARS worth of Staple Dry Goods now receiving direct from Boston, and New York, which I will sell at a very small profit for cash. Some one or two of my fellow merchants are little vexed because I sell goods so cheap. I cannot help it. I have no one to divide profits with, and of course I can sell cheaper, and I presume I bought my goods very cheap, as I paid cash for a large portion of them.
CALEB WALL,
sup7 — City Auctioneer.

CITY AUCTION ROOM.
CHICKERING'S PIANOS.

REMEMBER I have them for sale, and remember I buy Gold Pianos. Remember I am ready to advance on all description of Furniture, and its attend to all sales at my store or from my store, and at as moderate per cent, as one can live by, and make immediate returns. I can be found at all hours from 7½ o'clock A. M. to 10 P. M., at my Store, where goods are going morning and night cheap.
CALEB WALL,
sep15 — City Auctioneer.

CITY AUCTION ROOM.

I AM now receiving Goods which will be disposed as directed, and in course of ten days I am empowered to sell three thousand dollars worth at Public Auction—a full catalogue describing the Goods I will be prepared. Due notice will be given when and where the sale will take place.
CALEB WALL,
sep15 — City Auctioneer.

I AM home again after a brief visit to New York and Boston, where I have selected and will have in a few days the best stock of Domestic and Staple Dry Goods in this City.—I will not except any.—Facts will prove themselves. I hope Country Merchants and others who purchase Goods for cash or city acceptance, will call and see my stock of Goods and prices before they purchase. I know I have not the sympathy of many merchants in Milwaukee, or do I care; for I have been twenty years in trade, and have learned that in trade there is no friendship.—What I do, I do on my own judgment, and I sell my goods at a profit that I am satisfied with, and not to satisfy my neighbors.—Now this is plain common sense talk, and I do hope those who are purchasing goods to sell again, will call at the City Cash Jobbing and City Auction Room.

GREAT WORK ON CIVILIZATION.—This great work can be had at OTT'S Bookstore, 275 East Water st. &c. It is the work of the age. From a large number of liberal and highly complimentary notices of this work, from the religious and secular press, we only select the following:

"This admirable work is at length, before us, and we hasten to inform our readers of the valuable addition, which has thus been made to the literature of our country. The work is by far the most important of its kind, ever published in this country. It is in fact a complete library in itself condensed and so arranged as to bring the whole question within the grasp of the humblest reader. It appears most appropriately at the present time, and will no doubt prove an instrument of great efficacy in the work of diffusing sound doctrines on the matter of which it treats."—Tuttle Telegraph. april22.
